

FAQ – Cash Gold Canada

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I use CashGold Canada?

Simply fill out our Registration Form and we will promptly send you a Gold Kit that contains everything you need to easily and safely send us your gold or old jewellery.

Does it cost me anything to send you my gold & jewellery?

It is 100% free to send us your gold. When you request your Free Gold Kit, we send you everything you need to securely and safely send us your valuables. Shipping back to us is prepaid, and all packages are tracked for your assurance.

Is my jewellery insured if it gets lost?

Yes, each package is automatically insured for up to $100. If you believe that your jewellery is worth more than $100, Canada Post Xpress envelopes can be covered up to $500.00. Purchase the additional insurance from the Canada Post kiosk and enclose the receipt along with your jewellery, and CashGold Canada will reimburse you. If you feel that you need additional coverage please contact our office for other options.

What if I'm sending bulky or very valuable items?

Please give us a call (877) 522-7404 and we will be more than happy to arrange a more suitable method of shipment for you.

How do I know if you've received my Gold Kit?

All of our prepaid shipping packages contain a tracking number. You may check the status of your shipment any time by visiting www.canadapost.ca and entering your tracking number.

How does CashGold Canada calculate the value of my gold jewelry?

CashGold Canada calculates the value of your gold jewelry primarily based on these factors: – The price of gold as quoted by the New York spot prices on the day of settlement. – The karat content of your gold which is a percentage of 24 karat:10kt is 41.6%; 14kt is 58.3%; 18kt is 75% gold. – The actual weight of your gold.

How quickly do I get paid?

One (1) business day after we receive the CashGold Kit back we will process your materials and issue a payment. If a cheque is issued, please allow a few days for delivery. Bank wires will be completed within (1) business day.

Are your payouts higher than a jewelry store or pawn shop?

Yes. Because we are the gold refiner. We refine the metals we purchase and don't use any subcontractors or middle-men, we can afford to pay you more for your items.

What is a CashGold Kit?

The CashGold Kit is comprised of all the shipping materials you will need to send in your items to our refinery. It contains a padded envelope, a tear-free shipping envelope and a form on which you provide us your payment information so that we know where to send your check. We provide you with all the materials you need and pay the cost of shipping and insurance.

What type of items can I send in?

We accept anything containing gold, silver, platinum, palladium and other precious metals, such as necklaces, charms, bracelets, rings, earrings, cufflinks, pins, watches or other jewelry. Coins, collectibles, decorative pieces, silver flatware or similar items are also acceptable. If it contains precious metals, we can refine it... even dental work!

What will you NOT buy?

Below are some of the items we don't buy:- Stolen items – Ancient Artifacts – Non precious metals – Plastic – Pearls – Gold Plated items – Costume jewelry – Non precious stones

Can I send in stones/precious gems?

Although we accept items containing precious gems and other stones, we are not in the business of recycling these items. If you plan to send in an item that contains a stone which you believe to be valuable, we strongly recommend removing the stone prior to sending it in to us. We deduct the weight of the stones from the gross weight of the item to determine the net weight in gold.

What happens if I change my mind?

CashGold Canada offers a 100% satisfaction guarantee. If you are unhappy with the amount you receive for your jewelry, simply call our toll-free number and return the check so that it arrives in our offices within seven (7) days of the date that appears on the check. After we receive your check, your items will be returned to you within 15 days. Return shipping costs are to be paid by the customer. Please note that after you have accepted an "on-the-spot" payment or wire transfer as a settlement option, the material becomes property of CashGold Canada, and is destroyed. You will no longer be able to have your material returned.

Does CashGold Canada return my non-precious items?

Items not containing precious metals will not be returned by CashGold Canada, but you may request these items be returned to you at your expense. In such case, CashGold Canada will charge a twenty dollar ($20) fee to cover return postage and processing in order to return items not containing precious metals to you.
